

EDI 101: An Introduction to Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion

by Charee Mosby-Holloway
Director of Student D&I, Columbia College Chicago

Abstract:

Organizational diversity efforts can be challenging for many reasons. The fear of saying or doing the wrong thing can be a barrier to engaging in meaningful dialogue around diversity and creating safe, welcoming work spaces. This interactive presentation will provide participants with a common vocabulary for engaging across difference, as well as cover introductory concepts related to diversity and inclusion.

Friday June 15th, Ramsey Auditorium

Seminar: 12-12:50pm & Discussion: 12:50-1:20pm

Food served at 11:30 am outside the auditorium

About the Speaker:

Charee Dee Mosby-Holloway is an alumnus of the University of Notre Dame and the Ohio State University, and has been a Student Affairs practitioner and educator for over a decade. Her experience includes creating and facilitating diversity and social justice initiatives for students, faculty, staff, and community partners. Currently, Charee serves as the Director of Student Diversity and Inclusion at Columbia College Chicago.

FSPA
Fermilab Student &
Postdoc Association

Organizing Committee:
Sowjanya Gollapinni, Brian Nord
Daniel Bowring, Midhat Farooq

Questions? Comments?
Email: midhatf3@gmail.com

Fermilab TADI
Talent Acquisition,
Diversity and Inclusion